Re: MM Docket No. 93-41
Winston-Salem and Asheboro,
North Carolina

Dear Judge Gonzalez:

This report will cover those matters discussed and agreed upon by Triad Family Network, Inc., and Positive Alternative Radio, Inc., at a settlement conference held at the offices of the Mass Media Bureau's Hearing Branch on Thursday, May 20, 1993.

The parties agreed that they would continue their efforts to settle the proceeding. Radio is currently attempting to locate a new transmitter site which will permit it to amend its application to a new site and channel, thereby, hopefully, breaking the mutual-exclusivity between its application and that of Triad. Radio has agreed that it will attempt to provide Triad and the Mass Media Bureau with its preliminary engineering by May 25, 1993. The parties also discussed the possibility of a share-time agreement, but agreed that such would not be viable in this case.

The parties agreed to a Joint Motion for Production of Documents and further agreed that responsive documents would be exchanged by hand on Wednesday, June 2, 1993. Additionally, the parties agreed that Radio would also provide documents, by hand on Wednesday, June 2, 1993, responsive to the document request contained in Triad's First Petition to Enlarge Issues.

The parties agreed that depositions of Radio principals Vernon H. Banker and Virginia L. Baker regarding the financial issues would be held in Washington on June 8, 1993. Triad agreed to release Edward Baker from his deposition. Triad notified Radio and the Mass Media Bureau that Triad would also be deposing Carl Davis, the bank official mentioned in Radio's Opposition to First Petition to Enlarge Issues.

The parties further agreed that, subject to the Presiding Judge's approval, the time for Radio to oppose Triad's Second Petition to Enlarge Issues would be extended until Friday, May 28, 1993.

In the event that Radio is successful in locating a new site and a new channel which is acceptable to it, Triad, and the Mass Media Bureau, the parties contemplate filing a Settlement Agreement and Motion to Sever shortly thereafter.
